

Proposal of legislative amendment

2.4 Annual general meeting (AGM)

A general meeting is held annually, normally during spring. All registered doctoral candidates and postdocs at NTNU have the right to attend the AGM.

Propose to add and other temporary scientific employees (including employees with temporary research contracts).

New point 2.4 Annual general meeting (AGM)

A general meeting is held annually, normally during spring. All registered doctoral candidates, post-docs and other temporary scientific employees (i.e., employees with temporary research contracts) at NTNU have the right to attend the AGM.

This further implies the following change to the statute:

All other instances referring to doctoral candidates and post-docs will now also include “and other temporary scientific employees (i.e., employees with temporary research contracts)” in addition.
