

To you who's spending Christmas eve in Gjøvik

2020 has been a different year for most of us, and Christmas will most likely be celebrated in an unusual manner as well.

We wish you a happy holiday season, even though it will be different from the ones before.

We want to invite you to a "Grøttest" (Porridge party) in Fahlstrøm Bar & Grill on the 24th of December from 12.00 to 14.00.

Grøttest is a Norwegian tradition on Christmas eve.

We are serving rice porridge and red berry squash. This is free of charge. Also, you can buy other beverages from the bar if you wish.

Please register for the event by sending an email to Anne.Bjertnas@gjovik.kommune.no by the 18th of December.

Address: Fahlstrøms plass 1, 2815 Gjøvik

Best wishes from
